I understand that once my order is placed with Celebrations:

_____ I am aware that this garment will not be made to my exact measurements and that some alterations may be required

_____ Should alterations be necessary, Celebrations provides a seamstress at an additional charge. Alterations are NOT included in the sale of the garment. Gown must be paid in full before meeting with the seamstress. I am under no obligation to use the seamstress at Celebrations. However if I chose to do so, I should make an appointment at least 2 weeks in advance (at least 3 weeks February – April), and allow a minimum of 4-6 weeks for the alterations to be completed.

_____ No merchandise can be taken from the store unless paid in full, including alterations.

_____ If I am part of a wedding party that is placing a group order, all dresses will be ordered at the same time to avoid possible dye lot variations which can occur if dresses are ordered separately. Any delay in placing the group order may result in rush fees for each individual order within the group.
